Days 11-16

When we were last together in class, we began to discuss "Anne Frank". Anne was a Jewish girl whose family went into hiding from Nazi Germany. She and her family were finally discovered and taken to the concentration camps where Anne eventually died. Anne couldn't go anywhere, she could only stay in the attic, for her safety. That is like what is going on today with the Corona Virus Pandemic. Anne journaled to deal with the world she was living in. Below are days 11-16.

Day 11: Complete the creative writing worksheet – Being in Hiding.

Day 12: Journal about how you are feeling during this time. If you chose to write, it must be at least a paragraph. You may draw a picture, find a poem, write about an article you read online. Express yourself.

Day 13: Journal about how you are feeling during this time. If you chose to write, it must be at least a paragraph. You may draw a picture, find a poem, write about an article you read online. Express yourself.

Day 14: Journal about how you are feeling during this time. If you chose to write, it must be at least a paragraph. You may draw a picture, find a poem, write about an article you read online. Express yourself.

Day 15: Journal about how you are feeling during this time. If you chose to write, it must be at least a paragraph. You may draw a picture, find a poem, write about an article you read online. Express yourself.

Day 16: Go outside and write about what you see in the world outside. Remember we are supposed to be staying home, so this should give you a fresh perspective of what you see.
